tian church, Rev. Wilson, officiating. Burial at Oak Grove.

CAIRO ELEVATOR BURNED.

CAIRO, Ill., Oct. 2.—The grain elevator of the H. L. Halliday Milling company caught fire about 9 o'clock Saturday evening and is a total loss. The flames started near the top of the building, probably originating from a hot jacket, when discovered by the watchman it was a roaring furnace. The elevator is only 60 feet from the flour mill of the company which was in great danger, as was also the lumber yard of Kely Bros., to the west. The firemen, however, succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames. The elevator was completed last summer at a cost of $30,000. It had a capacity of 300,000 bushels of wheat, and was three-fourths full. The property is covered by insurance.

Africa.

FORWARD MOVEMENT BEGUN

Boers and the English Are Making for the Frontiers and English Territory.

PARLIAMENT TO MEET DEMAND

PARLIAMENTARY, Natal, Oct. 2.— There is the most intense excitement here. It is generally believed the Boers will be in Natal in two days.

It is thought Orange Free State burglars expended at Albertina yesterday night on the Natal frontier, probably intending to make a raid on Natal and to cooperate with the Boer raiders in the destruction of the railroad below that place. Albertina is not far over the frontier in the Orange Free State, on the railroad running to Ladysmith.

The position of the British frontier posts in Natal is most critical. From ten to twenty thousand Boers are now gathered at Volksrust waiting word to cross the frontier. There are strong Boer positions at New Castle and Dunbar but they are not strong enough to cope with the force the Boers can now put into Natal.

News of the British war in Natal is daily becoming more important.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—It is announced that parliament meets on the 17th.
Parliament is summoned by the government to sit in the afternoon of the 17th to discuss the war in Africa and The session will be a stormy one, for the budget will go through. The options are that the war will begin before the week is passed if not by Wednesday. It is reported that General Buller's army, who are in the frontier of the Orange Free State have been in the field with twelve thousand men.

Telegraph company says an engagement between Boers and British is reported as having taken place at The official managers started to work as soon as the Shamrock was in position. When finished the yacht will be taken down and anchored off Tomp-kinsville. They will remain there until tomorrow morning, when they will be towed to the Sandy Hook light ship, which will be the starting point for the races. Betting is now five to four on the Columbia.

Admiral Dewey Leaves New York for the Capital.

At Jersey City a Crowd Witnesses His Departure and Greets a Demonstration.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Admiral Dewey was able to find but little rest yesterday, though it had been planned for him to have few or no visitors. He was so exhausted that it became necessary for him to request that none of his advisers shake hands with him. He received delegations from Chicago and Philadelphia and thanked them for invitations to visit the two cities, but few individual callers were admitted to his room. Today he will leave for Washington, where he will be received warmly by the president.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—At a light breakfast which Admiral Dewey took at an early hour this morning, with his relatives, he expressed himself as much refreshed after the great strain since leaving the sea. He saw no visitors. This morning at 11 o'clock he started for a brief drive before proceeding to the depot. Admiral Dewey has received many letters and telegrams of welcome that he finds it impossible to answer them personally as would wish. He therefore asks the press to convey his thanks and best wishes to all his correspondents.

ALBANY CITY, Oct. 2.—Admiral Dewey left here this afternoon at 1:30 for Washington. There was a large demonstration at the depot, where there was a jam of people to see the national guest depart for the capital.

BIG REDUCTION

The Illinois Central Lays Off 114 Men in the Shops
Here.

THE TIME IS CUT DOWN

The Order Was to Reduce Expenses $50,000 a Month—Many Old Men Off.

THE TIME IS VERY INDEFINITE

There was considerable discussion this morning at the Illinois Central when many of the men returned to work as usual Monday morning and ascertained that they were laid off. Some of the oldest men were among the unfortunate, to whom it was entirely unexpected.

Master Mechanic Curley received an order from headquarters ordering him to reduce expenses in the shops $5,000 a month. He did this by taking $1,500 out in men and $1,500 in time. This means that 114 men were laid off and the working hours were reduced from nine to eight hours a day from 7 a. m. to 5 p. m.
The local officials naturally dissatisfied to perform this unpleasant duty, but it had to be done, and in laying the men off, they were as far as they could possibly be. The lay off is indefinite, but it is thought that at least some of the men will shortly be put on again, as there is more work in the shops now than can well be done even with a full force. This is especially true in regard to the wood workers.

The men laid off in various departments were proportionate. Thirty-two per cent was taken from the department of the shops. A reduction is made every fall in the force and the men are put to work again as soon as possible, never later than spring.

eye" will be presented tonight. It tacles between acts. Ladies free

HOBBIES OF ROYALTY.

Queen Victoria's hobby is gardening, and she is passionately fond of dogs and ponies. Her especial favorite being her old black pony Jessie. Her majesty is also a great lover of bullfinches and has several of them, whose pretty tricks and charming piping give her immense pleasure. To insure the safety of the feathered pets it is forbidden for any one in the royal household to have a cat—at least, any one whose apartment is at all near the queen's.

The princess of Wales has a great liking for lace. Her collection, which has been a wonderful specimen, is worth $250,000. The duchess of York has one of the most interesting collections of postcards on record. It has been contributed in by the sovereigns of every land where postcards are used. The German collection of her royal highness supplying by far the greater number.

The duke of Edinburgh is an ardent stamp collector, and possesses one of the finest collections in the world. His daughter, the crown princess of Rou-mania, delights in perfume bottles, as did her grandmother, the late empress of Russia, who had a unique collection of elaborate and beautiful bottles, which was valued at $35,000, and was bequeathed to her grandmother.

The queen of Italy has a peculiar hobby—a collection of gloves, boots and shoes which have been worn at different periods by popes and imperials personages. She has a pair of white slippers and a fan which belonged to Mary, Queen of Scots; also shoes worn by Queen Anne and the empress Josephine. King Humbert takes great pleasure in another collection, at which art he is an adept.

The empress of Germany is a champion knitter, and uses large wooden needles for the work she does. The queen of Greece, possesses a good deal of her time in fancy needlework, and it is said to be the finest needlewoman among European royalties. The dowager queen of Portugal is fond of shooting and spends much time at her country place on the seaboard at Cal-das, where she amuses herself by firing from a high window at bottles placed in the sea for the purpose. She is said to be an excellent markswoman. The empress of Japan is distinguished for her clever manipulation of the koto, a Japanese instrument resembling the sitar.

POLICE COURT.

Nearly All Cases for Plain Drunks
—No Court Tomorrow.

Nearly all the cases on Judge Handerson's docket this morning were plain drunks. At the conclusion of court, Judge Sanders said that owing to the fact that tomorrow was registration day there would be no court, and he accordingly adjourned until Wednesday morning.

The persons fined for being drunk were James Franklin, Thomas Austin, R. C. Tappin, Bob Griffin, Harry Steenway, T. S. Connerly.

Anderson Tappin saw Arthur Tappin Saturday and took it away from him and a peach blossom. He was fined $20 and costs.

Mrs. Lizzie Baker, of Broadway, was fined $1 and costs for using insulting language towards C. W. White and threatening to smash his face.

James Robertson, of Texas, was fined for breach of ordinance.

ROUNDED UP.

Tom Pett Politely Told That He Is a Deceiver.

Brookside News, Dem.: The quest we have to make with Mr. Pett on the school book question, the statement he makes in regard to the price and quality of the books are misleading. In fact they are not true and Mr. Pett either knows it or is trying to deceive the people for the purpose of catching their votes.

"Mr. Pett carries around with him two United States histories. He books them up before his audience and says, Here, gentlemen, are two books identical in the same, published by the same house, etc., over in Indiana just across the river, the publishers sell the book for 65 cents and here in Kentucky they make us pay $1. The former statement is true, we presume, for the price is printed on the cover, as to the latter we have Mr. Pett's word for it.

"Now, we denounce this whole scheme as a fraud and as a vote-catching scheme. Why do we say this?
Because we know it. In the first place the history is not used in Kentucky. It is not published by the American book company, and is not the history adopted by the school boards here. Barnes and the Ec-clesia histories are the books adopted by the board of education and are published by the American book company and are sold at $1. They are larger and better books and are not sold anywhere for less than $1.

"Mr. Pett tried to make it appear that the histories he had in Kentucky and published by the American book company and sold in Indiana for 65 cents, while our people were being made to pay $1. Now that is not true, and Mr. Pett, or any one else, will not presume that it is. It is a mistated trick to deceive people who want take the time to investigate and see for themselves.

"If the people want cheap books they can get them, but we deny the statement made that the books sold in Kentucky are sold anywhere else for less than we pay for them. They may seem high, but when the quality is taken into consideration they are not.

"We believe in making a square, honest issue before the people. We don't uphold fraud or deception in any party or any man. No party can ever succeed that practices it."

POOR HOUSE KEEPER.

Fiscal court, which begins tomorrow, will elect a poor house keeper before it adjourns. There are now about twenty applicants for the place. Mr. Sam Suesel is the present incumbent.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

The dedication of the building Sunday afternoon was attended by a large crowd and was most interesting. The program was rendered in full.

Julia Morrison, the actress, was inducted at Chattanooga for the married of Frank Leiden or Leidenheimer, of the "Mr. Plaster of Paris" company. Members of the grand jury called on Mrs. Morrison and assured her that she would be acquitted.

It is reported in Washington that Admiral Dewey will visit Harry Perry the widow of Gen. W. H. Hazer.

London papers estimate that war with the Boers would cost $350,000, 600.

Lieut. Gilmore and party were not among the 14 Americans liberated Saturday by the Filipinos. The latter are said to be "in the north."
They may be liberated later.

Government receipts in the Philippines were over $300,000 in July
